Dear Mr. Ross:

Re: Ross v. Ross

We have been retained by Ms. Catherine Ross to negotiate increased unsupervised access to Hilary Lynne Victoria Ross.

Pursuant to the Divorce Judgment granted by the Honourable Justice Metivier on November 21, 1996 you and Ms. Ross share custody of Hilary and Khierstyn. I understand that while the children's primary residence was initially with Ms. Ross, in 2002 their primary residence changed to your home.

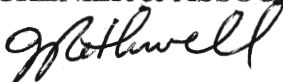

Ms. Ross would like to have regular, unsupervised visits in her own home with Hilary. I understand that at present you are insisting that visits take place in your home with Khierstyn supervising. This arrangement is not satisfactory to Ms. Ross, first of all there is no reason why visits can not take place in her own home and secondly it is inappropriate to place Khierstyn in the position of supervising visits between her mother and her sister.

Ms. Ross also wants visits with Khierstyn, however, given her age arrangements for visits can be made directly between Khierstyn and her mother.

I have not received a positive response to Ms. Ross' request for unsupervised visits with Hilary by Monday, July 12, 2004, we will have no option but to bring this matter back before the courts.

Yours truly
