Petitioner seeks an adjournment in order to cross-examine the respondent, and other issues. Respondent agrees that cross-examinations are necessary, but suggest that the respondent father should have interim custody of the two children of the marriage KATHRYN (Nov 16, 1985) and HILARY (Jan 07 89). In support of his position he relies upon the affidavits and other material. Not incidentally he relies on the assessment of Dr. McLean which is favorable to his position.

I have a difficult time determining the true facts in view of the conflicting material. I am mindful of Dr. McLean's professional opinion.
However, under all of the circumstances the best interest of the children will be served by remaining with the mother. The current situation is intolerable for both the father and mother and no doubt stressful for the children. I will hear further submission for Counsel regarding the husband's access during this interim period and the other out-standing issues.
I expect the mother to follow the Council, recommendation in the
