THIS IS EXHIBIT "B"
TO THE AFFIDAVIT OF

WILLIAM THOMAS ROSS

SWORN BEFORE ME THIS 26th DAY

OF NOVEMBER 1994

A Commissioner, etc.

Dear Ms. Prystupa:

Re: Ross v. Ross
Our File No. 3497

I have spoken with my client regarding the assessment. He is most anxious to have the matter dealt with as quickly as possible, however, he also wishes to ensure that the person doing the assessment is the most qualified available. I have called both Doctors Judge and Acker, and have received Dr. Judge's C.V. I will speak with both Dr. Judge and Dr. Acker as soon as possible (as well as Dr. Stevens), in an effort to ascertain who can conduct the assessment in the most thorough and efficacious manner.

My client has once again expressed his dismay at the condition of the matrimonial home vis-a-vis the puppies. As stated at the courthouse when we appeared on the motion, there are eight untrained puppies kept in the kitchen. My client states that there are dog faeces everywhere, that the cats track it from the floor to other surfaces (including surfaces used to prepare food) and into other parts of the house. He also states that on occasion the puppies escape from the kitchen and urinate and defecate in other areas of the home. Mr. Ross states that this situation is extremely unsanitary, and may in fact constitute a health risk. Please advise as to what arrangements your client is prepared to make to deal with this situation.

Also in relation to the puppies, Mr. Ross states that they are approaching the age where they may be sold, and that in fact his wife has apparently made arrangements for the sale of some or all of them. Obviously, these dogs are an asset, and Mr. Ross is entitled to one-half the proceeds from their sale. Given his difficult financial situation, he would appreciate receiving his share as soon as your client is in receipt of any monies.

In the meantime, I will contact you as soon as I have spoken with the proposed assessors, and I hope that we may be able to begin the assessment in the next very short while.

Yours truly,

L. Williams
