Dear Mr. Ross,

Your email correspondence of September 1, 2010 has been received.

As per our previous letter to you dated August 24, 2010, please be advised that this office cannot intervene on your behalf with your CRA issues or your family court dispute. While I appreciate your desire to address perceived inequities within our judicial system, this is outside of the jurisdiction of my office as Member of Parliament for Brant.

Furthermore, the threatening tone of your correspondence prohibits me from responding to any further communications, regarding these issues, from you.

Please be advised that your correspondence will not be replied to or acknowledged in future, unless it is within the jurisdiction of the office of the federal Member of Parliament.

Respectfully,

Phil McColeman
Member of Parliament - Brant
